

Serious Coffee Fund-Raising

Hello Coffee Lover!

Whether you are indulging in your own addiction to coffee or planning for your holiday gifts, take advantage of this great fund-raising opportunity. Each certificate raises $5.00 for our choir, supports a great local business and buys you a voucher for a bag of fresh coffee beans.

Follow these simple steps:

- ✧ Decide which type of coffee you like – there are 3 different certificates
- ✧ Fill in your order form
- ✧ Make out your cheque payable to Malaspina Choir or bring cash
- ✧ Bring Justine Michaux (Alto) the completed order form and money by Tuesday November 20th 2012
- ✧ Pick up your certificates from Justine in 2-3 weeks (yes, in time for Christmas)
- ✧ Take the certificates to any Serious Coffee outlet to redeem for coffee
- ✧ Note: many outlets request you fill no more than 2 at a time so they ensure they have fresh stock for you

Description & Prices of Coffee

Certificate # 1 $15.00

Includes

Three Amigos This medium-light blend of three Central American coffees offers complex and well-balanced tones with good body and aroma.

Colombia Supremo A rich, full bodied, smooth coffee. Available in a medium-dark roast.

Trekie Tall, dark and handsome... and rich too! With a slight winey note and balanced body and acidity, if you're a dark coffee lover, you gotta try it!

Certificate # 2 $15.00

Includes

Coal Miner's Organic Slightly on the acidic side with light-to-medium body and good balance. A very dark roast, not bitter and no burnt taste.

Warmland (Organic, Fairly-Traded) Direct from the farmers in Central America, comes this robust, full-bodied, smooth-tasting dark roast. The subtle notes and aroma are sure to create a wow factor with any crowd wanting to experience the dark side.

Certificate # 3 $17.00

Includes

Colombia Swiss Water Decaf Available in a medium-dark roast, this decaf is sure to satisfy with a good balance of acidity with medium body, and smooth taste... a classic
